AVAL ENGAGEMENT IS NOW IMMINENT

Is Believed Admiral Toga Will Attack Russians.

APS' FLEET IS BELOW FORMOSA

omen and Children Removed From Tamsui, Which Is Under Martial Law—Fourth Russian Squadron Is Ready to Sail for Eastern Waters.

Amony, China, May 18.—It is believed that part of the Japanese fleet is taking up a position below Formosa and that Admiral Togo has planned to fight the Russians south of Formosa.

The Japanese get orders from this vicinity at night time.

The state of martial law first declared at Tamsui, island of Formosa, and subsequently made general all throughout the island has been followed by the appointment of a military executive and the moving of the women and children from the Pescadore island to Forosa.

Fourth Squadron Ready to Sail.

St. Petersburg, May 18.—It is announced from Cronstadt that Vice Admiral Birelef, commander-in-chief at Baltic ports, has ordered the commanders in the fourth division of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet to hold their ships in readiness to leave for the Far East by June 4 without fail.

British Steamer Seized.

Tokio, May 18.—The British steamer Lincluden was seized by a Japanese warship May 15 south of Korea.

The French steamer Quang Nan was captured by a Japanese warship on the same date near the Pescadore Islands, straits of Formosa.

The cargoes of the two vessels are not announced.

France Made No Break.

Queenstown, May 18.—Vice Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, commanding the channel fleet, in an interview here yesterday on the arrival of the White Star line steamer Oceanic from New York, May 10, said he felt France had taken care that there should be no breach of neutrality in the Far East with her consent. Possibly, he said the Russians, like others, might use French waters to repair accidents and remain there until turned out.

SAILORS BEATEN BY UNIONISTS

Longshoremen Object to Them Unloading Ship During Strike.

Tacoma, Wash., May 18.—A desperate battle has occurred on the decks of the steamer Centennial in which several men were slightly injured and three are thought to have been drowned.

The Centennial, from San Francisco via Seattle, brought from the latter port a gang of 18 men to work the ship's cargo here. Owing to existing trouble between the sailors' union and the longshoremen's union, Captain Pierce had been threatened with a boycott by the sailors if he employed Tacoma longshoremen and hence had hired a crew at Seattle.

When the steamer arrived in port about 200 longshoremen boarded her armed with clubs, billies, pistols and other weapons. The Seattle men were beaten wherever found and some 30 shots were fired before order was restored.

GOMPERS ARRIVES IN CHICAGO.

Is There to Act as Peacemaker in the Teamsters' Strike.

Chicago, May 18.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was the central figure in the Teamsters' strike situation today.

His presence in Chicago was regarded as offering hope of peace, but the cry of the strikers was still for arbitration which the employers had resolutely refused as to garment workers, in whose behalf the teamsters' quit work six weeks ago. Mr. Gompers met the labor leaders today in his rooms at the Briggs house. Just before going into this conference he said:

"I am not in a position to say what will or will not be done. I will say, however, that I have no intention of interfering, unless I am commissioned by President Shea and his colleagues to do so."

That President Gompers came to Chicago at the solicitation of both the business men and the teamsters' officials to act in the capacity of peacemaker, was the statement of the national labor chief himself today.

Mr. Gompers had a conference during the morning with Mayor Dunne.

"The mayor and I had a pleasant talk," Mr. Gompers replied, smilingly when asked what was done.

"Were you asked to stop the spread of the strike?"

"I do not do things," said he, "I advise."

EXPELLED FROM UNIVERSITY.

Members of Graduating Class Are Dismissed by Faculty.

Jackson, Miss., May 18—Eight members of the senior or graduating class at the University of Mississippi, have been expelled by the faculty, for alleged participation in the Greek letter fraternity troubles at the institution.

Three of the students reached Jackson from Oxford this morning to demand a special meeting of the board of trustees for an investigation of the affair.

It is probable that the meeting will be called after Governor Vardaman returns to the city tomorrow.

The faculty recently expelled all the Greek letter fraternites and afterwards reinstated them. Further probing of the alleged solicitation of members among the freshmen followed, and as a result the eight students were expelled. All belong to some of the most prominent families in the state, among the number being Lucius Mayes, son of Judge Edward Mayes, of this city, a former chancellor of the university.

The expelled students are anxious to secure the special meeting of the trustees immediately in order to be reinstated before the June commencement exercises.

Mayor Chamblis, of Chattanooga, delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by M. J. O'Leary, of New York. Several committees were appointed and a few committee reports submitted.

This afternoon will be spent by the delegates visiting the points of historic interest about the city and business sessions will be held again tomorrow and Friday.

Birmingham, Ala., May 18.—The sixth annual convention of the Southeastern Bill Posters' association, which has been in session at the Hillman hotel for the past two days, adjourned yesterday. It was unanimously decided to hold the next annual meeting at Jacksonville, Fla.

YACHTS START ON RACE ACROSS OCEAN

Boats Leave New York Harbor In Good Condition.

RACERS MAKE A GOOD START

While the Foreigners' Boats Seemed To Be Good Crafts, the Americans Are Picked to Win the Prize Offered by Emperor William.

New York, May 18.—Weather conditions early today were much more favorable for a start of the yachts in the trans-Atlantic race than on yesterday. Just before 8 o'clock the wind was blowing 8 knots an hour from the northwest, the sky was cloudy and the air clear. At that time it was possible to observe objects ten miles away. The Sandy Hook lightship could be plainly seen from the Highlands of Navesink.

The thick blanket of fog which made maneuvering about the starting point, Sandy Hook lightship, so hazardous yesterday that the committee in charge of the event, postponed it, disappeared during the night. The northwester had subsided to an 8-knot breeze.

The weather, however, still remained cloudy and sullen as if loathe to let the yachts leave these shores without sort of a preliminary tussle with a regular north Atlantic storm.

When the committee postponed yesterday's race it was planned to start the event today as soon as possible with the preparatory gun at noon.

Preparations to carry out this program were begun early, the committee tug reaching Sandy Hook at 8:30, three and a half hours before the event was scheduled to start.

The tug at once started on a tour among the yachts of the fleet. It seemed almost certain at that time that there would be no postponement today.

The only vessel missing in the fleet in Sandy Hook bay at 9 o'clock was Lord Brassey's Sunbeam. The other ten were anchored there waiting the arrival of the steam craft to tow them to the start.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the committee in charge of the race hoisted the signal "Get ready for sea" and the American yachts began leaving the bay. The first one to follow the Valhalla and the Sunbeam out to the start was Commodore Tod's White Thistle, closely followed by the yawl Ailsa.

Tugs were alongside of several other boats. By 10:40 o'clock the entire fleet was away to starting line at Sandy Hook lightship.

The Fleur de Lys was the only boat that did not have the services of a tug. The weather began to thicken up again and it looked as if there might be a return of yesterday's fog. Observance from shore was cut down to a matter of six or eight miles. The wind held true and still blew about seven knots.

At 11 o'clock because of the fog the lightship from which the start was to be made could not be seen from shore.

Steamer Stuck in the Sand.

New York, May 18.—At 6:30 o'clock this morning the Cunard line steamer Coronia, which sailed yesterday afternoon for Liverpool with a distinguished passenger list, was still aground opposite the Sandy Hook beacon. Two tugs were trying to put the liner off the bank. The wind was light. No damage to the ship is feared, as the bottom is that part of the channel is soft sand.

Chinaman Retains His Queue.

St. Louis, May 18.—Judge Rogers of the United States district court has issued an order allowing Ng Jung a Chinaman convicted and sentenced to a term of 90 days in the Missouri penitentiary for passing a raised $10 bill to retain his queue while serving his sentence. Jung told Judge Rogers that the retention of his queue was a matter of religion and he will be the first prisoner who has been confined in the state penitentiary who has not first been shorn.

PANAMA'S NAVY DEDICATED.

The Fleet Consists of One Steam Yacht of Small Tonnage.

New York, May 18.—Representatives of the Panama republic have formally dedicated their navy at a shipyard in South Brooklyn.

The force afloat consists of the steam yacht Orienta, commanded by Captain T. T. Lovelace, formerly of Kansas City. The yacht was recently purchased from a New York man for $30,000, and has been thoroughly overhauled preparatory to taking up the duty of guarding the eastern coast of the isthmus.

For the occasion of hoisting the Panama ensign, the Orienta was in gala dress, and a large party went aboard headed by Carlos Arosemena, secretary of the legation. Luncheon was served on board, after which the flag of the republic was brought from a locker and raised by Secretary Arosemena.

The emblem consists of four squares, two of white, one in the upper left and the other in the lower right hand corners, and two squares, one each of red and blue. In one of the white squares there is a single star of blue and in the other a red star.

The Orienta will leave for Colon on Thursday or Friday.

Arriving there she will be fitted with two three-pounder guns and two automatic rapid fire guns.

PRESBYTERIANS MEET.

General Assembly Holding Annual Meeting in Indiana.

Winona Lake, Ind., May 18.—Two meetings were held today preliminary to the opening of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, which will hold its first session tomorrow. The foreign mission conference began its work. Secretary Arthur J. Brown, of the board of missions, presided.

The speakers were Rev. John Balcom Shaw, of Chicago; Rev. C. B. McAfee, of Brooklyn; Rev. C. A. R. Janvier, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. D. B. Wells, of Fort Waynes, Ind., secretary of the woman's board of the northwest.

Nearly 300 persons were present. In the audience were seated Justice Harlan, of the United States supreme court, Mrs. Harlan and William Jennings Bryan. Justice Harlan is here to urge the construction of a Presbyterian cathedral at Washington. Mr. Bryan is here to attend the meeting of presidents of the Presbyterian colleges.

Neighbors Die Suddenly.

Atlanta, May 18.—Two men who were neighbors, fell dead in the city. One was Robert Hartmeyer, who has a vineyard on Mayson and Turner avenue, and the other was Robert Adair, who worked for a florist in West Atlanta, not far from where Hartmeyer lived. Hartmeyer went into his pasture to graze a cow. Later in the morning his dead body was discovered. The coroner's jury's verdict was that death resulted from apoplexy. He was 50 years of age. Robert Adair, who was riding in a florist's wagon, drove up to the store of John H. Pennington, 135 Luckie street. He walked into the back yard and a few minutes later was found dead.

Wireless Record Broken.

San Francisco, May 18.—The Pacific coast record for long distance wireless telegraphing has been broken, it is claimed, by a wireless message received from 315 miles out at sea. The communication came from the the government transport Solace, which left this port Monday and was received over the net magnetic detectors. The best record made, it is said at the local station, was when conversation was held with the Boston at a distance of 220 miles down the coast some six weeks ago.

White Girl Arrested for Burglary.

Nashville, Tenn., May 18.—An astonishing climax was reached here to an investigation by the police of thefts that have recently been committed in this city when Mattie Bell Halleman, a 12-year-old girl, was arrested on the charge of housebreaking and larceny. The offender is a school girl and is remarkably bright for her age. She has entered several residences in true burglar fashion and has stolen [illegible] money and jewelry.

PRESIDENT SPENCER ADDRESSES MEETING

He Delivers a Strong Speech On Railroad Question.

COURTS STOPPED THE REBATES

The Head of the Southern Railway Declares that Railroads Will Help Government in Correcting Abuses and Unjust Discriminations.

Atlanta, May 18.—The second days' session of the National Manufacturers' association convention opened here with nearly every delegate in his seat. The Grand opera house was well filled with interested spectators. The convention is hard at work and many interesting papers have been read on topics that vitally interest both capital and labor.

President Samuel Spencer, of the Southern Railway, delivered one of the most notable addresses heard before the national manufacturers' convention.

Mr. Spencer spoke for the transportation interests in opposition to the attempt to have the government go into the rate-making business. He argued that if the government commits itself to the policy of fixing the price at which railroads shall sell their transportation, it may soon attempt to fix the selling price for the products of manufactures.

Mr. Spencer presented the railroad side of the case in a very clear cut manner. He declared emphatically that the railways will co-operate heartily with the government in correcting abuses and unjust discriminations. As a matter of fact, the courts have already practically stopped the giving of secret rebates by the roads. This is an evil which has had a very serious effect on some lines of business in the north and west, but speaking generally, the railways in the south have not been guilty of giving rebates for a number of years.

In suggesting desirable legislation by congress, Mr. Spencer said:

"The remedy lies in an intelligent and thorough recognition of the benefits to be derived from large corporate instead of small individual activity; it lies in throwing the searchlight of public knowledge and public scrutiny upon all corporate actions and methods which can, by illegal abuses and discriminations, inflict injury and injustice upon others of equal rights; it lies in wise and judicious laws in respect to the formation of corporations, the amount and character of their capitalization and the scope of their corporate powers, and in a system of governmental supervision and inspection which can successfully detect and punished all infractions of the law.

"It lies not in a restriction of the earning power of the profits of corporations thus formed or thus supervised. The profits of corporations, legitimately organized, legally and honestly conducted, should be no more restricted by governmental action than the profits of the individual engaged in similar pursuits."

Negro Killed by Elevator.

Atlanta, May 18.—John Bretchett, a negro boy 15 years old, was caught in the elevator in Jack Wilson's stag hotel at [illegible] Broad street and his head crushed before he could be rescued. When Grady hospital ambulance arrived Bretchett was dead. The boy was in a closet adjoining the shaft and put his head through the window as the weights of the ascending elevator descended. It was necessary to take the elevator apart before the boy could be extricated. He was employed in the bowling alley and had been at work Monday.

West Point, N. Y., May 18.—The colossal statue of the late President McKinley, recently completed, attracted many persons to the studios of the sculptor, H. A. HAD TO HIDE IT

A mother wrote us recently that she had to keep Scott's Emulsion under lock and key—her children used to drink it whenever her back was turned. Strange that children should like something that is so good for them. It's usually the other way. Scott's Emulsion makes children comfortable, makes them fat and rosy-cheeked. Perhaps that's why they like it so much—they know it makes them feel good.

NEWS FROM WILLISTON.

Interesting Budget of Notes From That Progressive Town.

Williston, May 18.—Mrs. R. D. Medlin and daughter, Mary, have gone to Suwannee Springs to spend awhile for the former's health.

Mrs. Dr. Hicks has just completed a handsome cottage and moved into it.

Rev. Norwood of the Baptist church at this place will leave Monday for Nocatee, where he will marry Miss Harris of that place. Their future home will be at that place.

The Williston Manufacturing Company is turning out a vegetable basket that is hard to beat. They are running full capacity and it is with some difficulty they furnish and fill their orders.

Mr. Williamson of the Seaboard Air Line is getting in some good work for his line soliciting shipments of vegetables from this point. There are about three to four cars of cukes leaving this place daily, and they are about equally divided between the two roads. If the conditions continue favorable there will be at least six cars leave here Monday for market.

There are twelve irrigating plants here now, and with this innovation other sections will hardly be able to compete with us. It is a question of only a short time when we will compete with Sanford for the celery trade. With plenty of water this is easy.

This section is better adapted for diversified crops than any section in the State.

APPROACHING NUPTIALS.

Two Popular Young People of This City Will Soon be Wedded.

Invitations are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Maria, daughter of Col. J. A. Carliele, to Rev. Wm. H. Hargrove, which event will transpire on Wednesday, the 31st inst., at high noon, at Kavanaugh Methodist Church.

The bride is one of Gainesville's most popular and most widely known young ladies. She was virtually reared here, and has hosts of friends who love her for her sweet, amiable disposition. The prospective groom is a most earnest worker in the ministry, a Christian gentleman who deserves the good wife whom he will have the honor to call his own, and congratulations are due in advance.

On Wednesday evening, June 7th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Alexander Liddon, Ocala, their charming daughter, Miss Johnnie, will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Dr. James Maxwell Dell of this city. Dr. Dell is one of Gainesville's most prominent young men, a promising physician, and a young man in whom the city feels a great pride. Miss Liddon is one of the most beautiful young ladies of the Brick City, a favorite in social circles, and will be greatly missed in the society element of Ocala.

Dr. and Mrs. Dell will reside here, where they will be welcomed by their numerous friends, all of whom will join in extending congratulations in advance.

Baptist Convention at St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 18.—The first hour of today's session of the general convention of the Bauptist north and southwest was given to devotional exercises. The report of the committee of nine, appointed at a conference in New York last January recommending permanent organization was then read by Chairman E. M. Thresher, of Ohio. A general discussion followed.

Policemen Arrested for Perjury.

Covington, Ga., May 18.—No little excitement was created here over the arrest of Chief of Police Bradford Bohannon and Policeman P. W. Skelton, on warrants charging them with perjury in connection with the recent sensational gambling raid in this city. They were pitced under $100 bonds. Both have been on the police force for a number of years and stand well in the community.

Georgia Eastern Stars Meet.

Macon, Ga., May 18.—The grand chapter of the Eastern Star Masons met at the hall of Macon lodge No. 5, on Cotton avenue, in this city, and a large number of lady members of the order from all sections of the state were present. Mrs. Mattie May Delkin, of Atlanta, grand matron of the order, presided at the sessions of today.

Railroads in the Philippines.

Washington, May 18.—Secretary Taft has postponed until Nov. 1 next the date for the opening of bids for the constructin f railrads in the Philippines. The prspectus setting out the conditions to govern the bidding will be promulgated within a week. The secretary meantime will accord a hearing to representatives of certain interests which desire changes in the original plans.

$2,000,000 for Panama Canal.

New York, May 18.—Plans for the enlargement of the terminal and dock facilities at Colon and Panama and the double tracking and re-equipment of the road, entailing an exependiture of approximately $2,000,000, were approved by the board of directors of the Panama Railroad company at a meeting held here.

Danish Bark Runs Ashore.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 18.—A dispatch received at the maritime exchange station here from Long Branch says that the Danish bark Bertha from Rio Grande for New York went ashore during the night off that place. Her crew of eight men were landed by the breeches buoy. The Bertha is loaded with hides. She is lying in a dangerous position.

Fought Flood with Dynamite.

Lima, O., May 18.—Dynamite was used here to blow up the blockading banks of a new channel cut for the Ottawa river in aid of Lima's new $200,000 reservoir. Heavy rains have brought down a deluge of water which the channel could not accommodate and hundreds of acres of farm lands and oil lands are flooded beyond the high water mark.

English With a French Polish.

There are disadvantages attached to wealth when one was not born to it or is slow in getting used to it. One that Mr. Quidsby found, says London Answers, was that the chef always sent up the menu written in his own language, French, to which the master of the household was a stranger.

"I should like to know what I'm eating for once, M. Alphonse," said Mr. Quidsby to his chef on one occasion. "Let us have the menu in English today."

"Oui, monsieur," was the reply. "It ees ver' difficile, but I veel do it so if you veel gif me ze dictionnaire."

A small but select party came to dinner that evening and were met with the following bill of fare:

Soup at the tail of the calf.
Salmon in curl papers.
Chest of mutton to the little peas.
Potatoes jumped.
Ducks savage at sharp sauce.
Charlotte at the apples.
Turkey at the devil.
Fruits variegated.

Quidsby and Mrs. Quidsby agreed afterward that they had never presided over a more hilarious dinner party.

Coffee and Smoke in Spain.

Even of wine, so cheap and abundant in Spain, the natives seem to use very little. They are frightfully intemperate, however, in their use of tobacco and coffee. They drink coffee at all hours and apparently every hour. The clerk who takes his morning cup at 9 has another at his desk an hour later, purchased from a street vender. The business men passing through the streets pause while a fellow who carries hot coffee, hot milk, sugar and spoons harnessed upon him serves them on the sidewalk.

If the Spaniard does not smoke in his sleep it is his only respite from the habit.—Rosary Magazine.

Civil Service.

"Maria," said Boggles to his wife, with an idea of instructing her in political economy, "do you know what civil service is?"

"Jasper," said Mrs. Boggles, with memory of recent contact with the cook, "there isn't any."

PROFITS OF THE DUMP.

Good Money In Many Old Things That Are Thrown Away.

"I get," said a Philadelphia dump boss, "$4 a week, free rent and the disposal of any dump of value.

"Tin cans, for instance, belong to me if they are dumped here, and I make a pretty penny out of them. They are turned, you know, into tin soldiers and so forth.

"Corks are another perquisite of mine. Many and many an old broken bottle on this dump had a good cork in it. I get 8 cents a pound for all the corks I find.

"Old shoes are never too old to be sold. They have always one good piece—the piece over the instep—that can be used again. The smaller pieces of good leather cut out of them are made into purses and wristlets.

"Eggshells also have value. Something like 1,000,000 pounds of eggshell are used every year in the manufacture of kid gloves and print calicoes.

"Do you see those eighteen barrels behind there? Well, each of those barrels contains its own variety of assorted marketable dumpage. Each will sell when filled at a good price. There are, I believe, fifty-seven varieties of marketable dumpage, and some dumps yield all the varieties. Mine yields twenty-seven."—Philadelphia Press.

THE PORCUPINE.

Is His Liking For Salt an Acquired or a Natural Taste?

Some men who were camping in the Adirondacks several years ago on breaking camp in the autumn left an old tub which was saturated with salt brine. On returning to the same camp the next year they found that the tub had been gnawed until little of it was left. They were not long in finding out what animal had done the work, for the camp was overrun with Canadian porcupines. At night they became such a nuisance that the campers were obliged to kill them to protect their property. The handle of a paddle was gnawed half through.

The explanation of their presence in such numbers during that year, when they had not been noticeably abundant in the previous year, is that they had made a rendezvous of the camp, being attracted by the old brine tub. On this they feasted all winter and for that reason were greatly pleased with the locality.

An interesting query is this: Is the liking for salt an acquired or a natural taste? Were they ever able to gratify that taste to any extent before man gave them a chance to do so?—St. Nicholas.

The Horseshoe Legend.

Here is an explanation of the old horseshoe superstition: St. Dunstan was a skilled farrier. One day while at work in his forge the devil entered in disguise and requested Dunstan to shoe his "single hoof." The saint, although he recognized his malign customer, acceded, but caused him so much pain during the operation that Satan begged him to desist. This St. Dunstan did, but only after he had made the evil one promise that neither he nor any of the lesser evil spirits, his servants, would ever molest the inmates of a house where the horseshoe was displayed.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

The drivers of the hack teams in the city will have to be more careful in their treatment of the horses they drive or they will certainly get into trouble. A lady who has noticed the way they ply the whip to them has been thoroughly aroused in this matter, and a few days ago she expressed herself quite strongly on the subject:

"It is a shame," she said, "to see the drivers of hack teams, as soon as they get out of sight of the owners, use their whips on the poor beasts. I never yet saw a team get past my home without being struck with the ugly whips these drivers use. They whip some of them just because they have the advantage of the poor animals, and for no other reason.

"And some of the horses are quite poor, and because they don't get enough to eat. I heard one driver say he never gave his horses anything to eat at noon. I wonder how he would like to work from morning until night without anything to eat?

"It seems as though something could be done for these poor animals. Why, they whip them perfectly awful. I know they act crazy to get passengers, but of course the passengers are not afraid of getting hurt, while the poor dumb animals are hitched up and can't get away. I wish The Sun would give them a good one and ask them to stop."

While The Sun might say something about the matter, any person who sees the owner or driver of a horse or other beast of burden abuse them, can have them arrested for cruelty to animals and punished.

Every city of the size of Gainesville should have a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Our schools are the bulwarks of our national existence. Destroy the schools and you cripple the country.

If the Japs and Russians don't get together soon, there will be a dearth of paragraphs left for the daily papers.

The aid to the Blind and Deaf School at St. Augustine has been voted at $75,000. This is one of the most deserving institutions in the State.

Florida should be represented at the Jamestown Exposition in 1907. With an appropriation of $25,000 there should be a very good display of Florida products.

The saying is "that man violates the law," but as man was here some time before many of the laws were passed, it looks as though "the law violates the man."

The East Coast baseball players want a league and they want Sunday ball. There are many other places that want Sunday ball. The action of the Legislature will be awaited with interest on the subject.

In many cities of the State where public or State schools are located the municipalities have done much to establish the schools and place them on a solid footing. To deprive these places of the educational advantages they have so long enjoyed would be a great hardship and a step backward along educational lines.

TRADE AT HOME.

So long as people can do as well and get as good bargains at home as they can by sending out of town, they should patronize their home merchants. If this is done the merchants at home will ask no more. The writer has taken the trouble to inquire into the matter of prices on many articles, and it is certain that the merchants of Gainesville sell as cheap as they do in the larger cities.

There is no city in Florida where clothing is sold cheaper than in Gainesville, and a careful inspection of the quality will show that the quality of goods and make will equal any to be had. It is the same in other lines. Our furniture stores carry as extensive lines as can be found in cities three times larger, and this is true in the hardware line.

It is only a habit people have of going away from home to buy something, which has grown on them in the past few years. They often send for goods of mail order houses because they see their advertisements. The home dealer can put a stop to a great deal of this mail order business if he will only quote prices in his advertisement and invite the people to give him a trial.

The mail order houses get their business through their advertisements. The same methods are open to the home dealer, and if he invites the people and gets them to call and see his wares, then he is at fault if he does not get their trade. The newspaper is the medium through which to induce people to trade at home.

The second Quarterly Conference of the Second Adventist Church, now in session in this city, has brought together a number of faithful Christian workers from various portions of the State, and their meetings are of interest to all Christian people whether of that denomination or not. There is but one aim for the Christian churches—the betterment of humanity—and The Sun hopes the meeting will be one of profit to those engaged in the work.

Admiral Dewey is reported as saying that the Russians will win the battle, as they have the largest number of fighting ships. Lord Beresford, the great English admiral, says that Japan will be the victor in a naval battle, as they are the best gunners—that there is nothing in numerical strength. The only question is: can the Japs find the Russians?

The Legislature will now be in line to be "cussed out" by the State papers for the next two months.

There is a wideness of difference in the opinions of men regarding right and wrong doing.

Cotton Man Attempts Suicide.

Selma, Ala., May 18.—This city was stirred this morning over the report that Mr. C. A. McKinnon, manager for Loveman & Co., cotton brokers, had shot himself. Mr. McKinnon had been sick for several weeks and it is said that this, together with some financial affairs, had preyed upon his mind until he was temporarily unbalanced. The shooting took place at his home in this city. The wound will not prove fatal, the ball striking near the temple and ranging upward.

Georgia Negro Shoots Ohio Officer.

Chillicothe, O., May 18.—When Officers Weigan and Maughmer attempted to arrest a negro burglar early today the burglar fatally shot Weigand in the breast and escaped, although Maughmer fired five shots without effect. A posse finally captured the man on Hunsinger's island, abount 2 miles below the city. The man appears to be a half-breed Indian, and gives his name as Oscar Evans, from Georgia.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

TEA A WEEK OLD.

The "Real Good Old Post and Rails" of Australia.

The tea drinkers of Australia rival those of China and Japan, not, however, in the quality, but in the quantity, consumed. The men especially drink the beverage in large quantities and all day long and at a strength which would make the cue of a tea drinking Chinaman curl. On Sunday morning the tea drinker starts with a clean pot and a clean record. The pot is hung over the fire, with a sufficiency of water in it for the day's brew, and when this is boiled he pours into it enough of the fragrant herb to produce a deep coffee colored liquid.

On Monday, without removing yesterday's tea leaves, he repeats the process, on Tuesday the same, likewise on Wednesday, and so on through the week. Toward the close of the seven days the pot is filled with an acrid mush of tea leaves, out of which the tea is squeezed by the pressure of a tin cup. By this time the tea is the color of rusty iron, incredibly bitter and disagreeable to the uneducated palate. The natives call it "real good old post and rails," the simile being obviously drawn from a stiff and dangerous jump, and regard it as having been brought to perfection.

The Japanese Idea of Bravery.

There is a time when death is much easier for a man than to fulfill his duty, and if he dies just for the sake of death he cannot execute the duty that is assigned him. True bravery is not in throwing away one's life or courting death, but in doing one's duty at the hazard of one's life. You must not forget that.—From "A Daughter of Japan," by Marui Gensai.

Homelike.

"Mamma," said the little girl who was having her first experience of riding in a sleeper.

"Hush, dear," whispered mamma, "you will waken the others."

"But, mamma, I only want to ask one question."

"Well, what is it?"

"Who has the flat above us?"—Life.

CIDER DEALERS MUST COUGH UP A TAX

Deputy United States Marshal Made Them Shell Out.

THEY WERE PUT ON GUARD

Warned All Dealers in Future to First Secure United States License Before Attempting to Dispense This Delicious Beverage—Dealers Indignant.

Deputy United States Marshal C. F. Wright of Jacksonville waged war upon what he termed the "cider joints" in this city Thursday, with the result that every cider dealer in the city was compelled to pay a proportionate United States tax, according to the length of time they stated they had been dispensing this delicious and refreshing beverage. The officer accepted the funds, and warned dealers who cared to "dabble" in cider in future to take out a government license.

Many of the merchants who have been accustomed to handle cider are protesting vigorously upon the action of the officer, declaring that he exceeded his authority in the premises. These merchants have been handling cider for years, some of them without interruption, and they claim now that there is not sufficient alcohol in the beverage to affect a baby. Each barrel of cider shipped into this city has a certificate from the manufacturer wnich protects the dealer, the certificate stating that the contents of the package are non-intoxicating.

Mr. Wright has at least effected a revolution in the cider industry for a time in Gainesville, and the fellow who likes cider and feels that he cannot do without it must resort to the jug process.

In speaking of the matter Friday afternoon, Sheriff Fennell authorized the statement that he proposed to compel every dealer in cider in future to conspicuously display his United States license as required by law, and in the event even then that the beverage was found to be intoxicating, he would arrest the dispenser for a violation of the prohibition law in a dry county.

HOUSE DEBATING ON EDUCATIONAL BILL

Hot Time in Lower Branch of Legislature Thursday.

LEGISLATIVE HALL PACKED

With People Anxious to Hear Debate on a Most Important Measure—Debate Will be Continued Today. Prominent Speakers.

The following telegram was received by The Sun Thursday night relative to the debate on the Buckman educational bill, which is of much interest to people in all sections of the State:

"Tallahassee, May 18.—The most intense interest was created in the debate in the House all day on the Buckman bill. The Hall of Representatives was crowded to suffocation. The fate of the bill is yet in doubt. The debate in the House may continue indefinitely. Among the speakers on the measure today were Messrs. Buckman, Rawls, Noble and Knight."

THE ROMAN ARENAS.

They Were Not Mere Rings, as Those of the Modern Circus.

The arenas of ancient Rome were not, as some people suppose, mere rings or ovals, such as may be seen in the modern circus. They were broken up and varied in character according to the nature of the fighting to be done or to the caprices of those in authority. On one occasion an arena might resemble the Numidian desert, on another the garden of Hesperides, thick set with groves of trees and rising mounds, while again it pictured the great rocks and caves of Thrace.

With these surroundings the combatants advanced, retreated, encircled their adversaries or kept wild beasts at bay as occasion offered or as their courage or fear suggested. Men combated not only with the more common brutes, but with such monsters as elephants, rhinoceroses, hippopotamuses and crocodiles. On other occasions flocks of game, such as deer and war ostriches, were abandoned to the multitude, and in some cases the arenas could be turned into lakes, filled with monsters of the deep, and upon the surface of which naval engagements took place.

The Word "Jinrikisha."

The word jinrikisha comes from three Japanese roots, jin-riki-sha, meaning respectively man, power, carriage, but it is not of Japanese origin. So recently as 1870 the inconvenience of the slow, lumbering two wheeled carts turned the thoughts of English residents to the ease with which the hardy natives could propel a lightly constructed vehicle, and one was invented, some say by a missionary, others by a newspaper proprietor's son. Ever since then the heavy carts have been entirely dispensed with.

A Positive Necessity.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg. I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself.—D. R. Byrnes, merchant, Doversville, Texas. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson, Gainesville, Fla., and J. C. Bishop, Alachua, Fla.

Two Meals a Day.

With many persons the custom of two principal meals, with a slight lunch between, finds considerable favor, and it has one or two reasons or solid advantages which are worth mentioning—it gives time for complete digestion before the stomach is again called on to take care of a supply of food, and it removes the chief meal from the time when the nerve force is wanted for the brain to an hour when it can assist the stomach.

Persons who are the victims of chronic complaints and whose digestion is slow and feeble are often greatly benefited by taking but two meals a day if they are careful to eat as much in the two as would ordinarily be comprised in three. The neuralgic in particular will do well to adopt this course, but the first meal should be somewhat late and the second reasonably early.

Juggling With Dynamite

Is no more dangerous than to neglect kidney disorders. Foley's Kidney Cure corrects irregularities and has cured many severe cases after other treatment has failed. It builds up the worn out tissues and restores health and vigor. "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis of Mt. Sterling, Iowa, "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure." Sold by J. W. McCollum & Co.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth

Agreed With Both.

Horace Greeley was the author of a style in editorial writing which had been often imitated, but probably never equaled. During his editorship two newspapers, neither of which was friendly to Greeley, became engaged in a violent altercation. The argument grew warmer until each paper openly called the other a liar. It was the opportunity Greeley had been waiting for. He announced in his paper that "he had the honor to agree with both of his distinguished contemporaries."

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere,—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure dandruff and baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the causes of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Liberty Halls.

"This is Liberty hall, and you may smoke in the garden," is a maxim which has become typical of one sort of hospitality. Another version has just been perpetrated by a member of the early rising fraternity.

"I wish," said the host, "every one to do as he likes in my house."

It sounded very friendly, but on going to his bedroom the guest found a little card stating the times of meals, "Breakfast at 7:30," and in an N. B. was added, "It will be cleared away at 8:30."

The Golden Mean.

The motto of the Greeks was "Nothing too much."

An excess of courage is brutality.

An excess of economy is penuriousness.

An excess of taste is preciosity.

An excess of gentleness is timidity.

An excess of confidence is egotism.

Who will show us where to draw the line?—Ernest N. Lyon in Everybody's Magazine.

Down on His Luck.

"Oh, John," she exclaimed as she observed him getting into his overcoat, "I hope you're not going to be out again tonight!"

"I hope not," he replied absentmindedly, "but it's quite likely. The cards have been running very badly for me lately."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Mean Way It Works.

"If you refuse to marry me," said the wealthy old man, "I shall pine away and die."

"Of course," responded the girl bitterly. "And if I would marry you you would hang to life like a bulldog. But that's the way it goes."—Detroit Tribune.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

The drivers of the hack teams in the city will have to be more careful in their treatment of the horses they drive or they will certainly get into trouble. A lady who has noticed the way they ply the whip to them has been thoroughly aroused in this matter, and a few days ago she expressed herself quite strongly on the subject:

"It is a shame," she said, "to see the drivers of hack teams, as soon as they get out of sight of the owners, use their whips on the poor beasts. I never yet saw a team get past my home without being struck with the ugly whips these drivers use. They whip some of them just because they have the advantage of the poor animals, and for no other reason.

"And some of the horses are quite poor, and because they don't get enough to eat. I heard one driver say he never gave his horses anything to eat at noon. I wonder how he would like to work from morning until night without anything to eat?

"It seems as though something could be done for these poor animals. Why, they whip them perfectly awful. I know they act crazy to get passengers, but of course the passengers are not afraid of getting hurt, while the poor dumb animals are hitched up and can't get away. I wish The Sun would give them a good one and ask them to stop."

While The Sun might say something about the matter, any person who sees the owner or driver of a horse or other beast of burden abuse them, can have them arrested for cruelty to animals and punished.

Every city of the size of Gainesville should have a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Our schools are the bulwarks of our national existence. Destroy the schools and you cripple the country.

If the Japs and Russians don't get together soon, there will be a dearth of paragraphs left for the daily papers.

The aid to the Blind and Deaf School at St. Augustine has been voted at $75,000. This is one of the most deserving institutions in the State.

Florida should be represented at the Jamestown Exposition in 1907. With an appropriation of $25,000 there should be a very good display of Florida products.

The saying is "that man violates the law," but as man was here some time before many of the laws were passed, it looks as though "the law violates the man."

The East Coast baseball players want a league and they want Sunday ball. There are many other places that want Sunday ball. The action of the Legislature will be awaited with interest on the subject.

In many cities of the State where public or State schools are located, the municipalities have done much to establish the schools and place them on a solid footing. To deprive these places of the educational advantages they have so long enjoyed would be a great hardship and a step backward along educational lines.

TRADE AT HOME.

So long as people can do as well and get as good bargains at home as they can by sending out of town, they should patronize their home merchants. If this is done the merchants at home will ask no more. The writer has taken the trouble to inquire into the matter of prices on many articles, and it is certain that the merchants of Gainesville sell as cheap as they do in the larger cities.

There is no city in Florida where clothing is sold cheaper than in Gainesville, and a careful inspection of the quality will show that the quality of goods and make will equal any to be had. It is the same in other lines. Our furniture stores carry as extensive lines as can be found in cities three times larger, and this is true in the hardware line.

It is only a habit people have of going away from home to buy something, which has grown on them in the past few years. They often send for goods of mail order houses because they see their advertisements. The home dealer can put a stop to a great deal of this mail order business if he will only quote prices in his advertisement and invite the people to give him a trial.

The mail order houses get their business through their advertisements. The same methods are open to the home dealer, and if he invites the people and gets them to call and see his wares, then he is at fault if he does not get their trade. The newspaper is the medium through which to induce people to trade at home.

The second Quarterly Conference of the Second Adventist Church, now in session in this city, has brought together a number of faithful Christian workers from various portions of the State, and their meetings are of interest to all Christian people whether of that denomination or not. There is but one aim for the Christian churches—the betterment of humanity—and The Sun hopes the meeting will be one of profit to those engaged in the work.

Admiral Dewey is reported as saying that the Russians will win the battle, as they have the largest number of fighting ships. Lord Beresford, the great English admiral, says that Japan will be the victor in a naval battle, as they are the best gunners—that there is nothing in numerical strength. The only question is: can the Japs find the Russians?

The Legislature will now be in line to be "cussed out" by the State papers for the next two months.

There is a wideness of difference in the opinions of men regarding right and wrong doing.

Cotton Man Attempts Suicide.

Selma, Ala., May 18.—This city was stirred this morning over the report that Mr. C. A. McKinnon, manager for Loveman & Co., cotton brokers, had shot himself. Mr. McKinnon had been sick for several weeks and it is said that this, together with some financial affairs, had preyed upon his mind until he was temporarily unbalanced. The shooting took place at his home in this city. The wound will not prove fatal, the ball striking near the temple and ranging upward.

Georgia Negro Shoots Ohio Officer.

Chillicothe, O., May 18.—When Officers Weigan and Maughmer attempted to arrest a negro burglar early today the burglar fatally shot Weigand in the breast and escaped, although Maughmer fired five shots without effect. A posse finally captured the man on Hunsinger's island, abount 2 miles below the city. The man appears to be a half-breed Indian, and gives his name as Oscar Evans, from Georgia.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

TEA A WEEK OLD.

The "Real Good Old Post and Rails" of Australia.

The tea drinkers of Australia rival those of China and Japan, not, however, in the quality, but in the quantity, consumed. The men especially drink the beverage in large quantities and all day long and at a strength which would make the cue of a tea drinking Chinaman curl. On Sunday morning the tea drinker starts with a clean pot and a clean record. The pot is hung over the fire, with a sufficiency of water in it for the day's brew, and when this is boiled he pours into it enough of the fragrant herb to produce a deep coffee colored liquid.

On Monday, without removing yesterday's tea leaves, he repeats the process, on Tuesday the same, likewise on Wednesday, and so on through the week. Toward the close of the seven days the pot is filled with an acrid mush of tea leaves, out of which the tea is squeezed by the pressure of a tin cup. By this time the tea is the color of rusty iron, incredibly bitter and disagreeable to the uneducated palate. The natives call it "real good old post and rails," the simile being obviously drawn from a stiff and dangerous jump, and regard it as having been brought to perfection.

The Japanese Idea of Bravery.

There is a time when death is much easier for a man than to fulfill his duty, and if he dies just for the sake of death he cannot execute the duty that is assigned him. True bravery is not in throwing away one's life or courting death, but in doing one's duty at the hazard of one's life. You must not forget that.—From "A Daughter of Japan," by Marui Gensai.

Homelike.

"Mamma," said the little girl who was having her first experience of riding in a sleeper.

"Hush, dear," whispered mamma, "you will waken the others."

"But, mamma, I only want to ask one question."

"Well, what is it?"

"Who has the flat above us?"—Life.

CIDER DEALERS MUST COUGH UP A TAX

Deputy United States Marshal Made Them Shell Out.

THEY WERE PUT ON GUARD

Warned All Dealers in Future to First Secure United States License Before Attempting to Dispense This Delicious Beverage—Dealers Indignant.

Deputy United States Marshal C. F. Wright of Jacksonville waged war upon what he termed the "cider joints" in this city Thursday, with the result that every cider dealer in the city was compelled to pay a proportionate United States tax, according to the length of time they stated they had been dispensing this delicious and refreshing beverage. The officer accepted the funds, and warned dealers who cared to "dabble" in cider in future to take out a government license.

Many of the merchants who have been accustomed to handle cider are protesting vigorously upon the action of the officer, declaring that he exceeded his authority in the premises. These merchants have been handling cider for years, some of them without interruption, and they claim now that there is not sufficient alcohol in the beverage to affect a baby. Each barrel of cider shipped into this city has a certificate from the manufacturer which protects the dealer, the certificate stating that the contents of the package are non-intoxicating.

Mr. Wright has at least effected a revolution in the cider industry for a time in Gainesville, and the fellow who likes cider and feels that he cannot do without it must resort to the jug process.

In speaking of the matter Friday afternoon, Sheriff Fennell authorized the statement that he proposed to compel every dealer in cider in future to conspicuously display his United States license as required by law, and in the event even then that the beverage was found to be intoxicating, he would arrest the dispenser for a violation of the prohibition law in a dry county.

HOUSE DEBATING ON EDUCATIONAL BILL

Hot Time in Lower Branch of Legislature Thursday.

LEGISLATIVE HALL PACKED

With People Anxious to Hear Debate on a Most Important Measure—Debate Will be Continued Today. Prominent Speakers.

The following telegram was received by The Sun Thursday night relative to the debate on the Buckman educational bill, which is of much interest to people in all sections of the State:

"Tallahassee, May 18.—The most intense interest was created in the debate in the House all day on the Buckman bill. The Hall of Representatives was crowded to suffocation. The fate of the bill is yet in doubt. The debate in the House may continue indefinitely. Among the speakers on the measure today were Messrs. Buckman, Rawls, Noble and Knight."

THE ROMAN ARENAS.

They Were Not Mere Rings, as Those of the Modern Circus.

The arenas of ancient Rome were not, as some people suppose, mere rings or ovals, such as may be seen in the modern circus. They were broken up and varied in character according to the nature of the fighting to be done or to the caprices of those in authority. On one occasion an arena might resemble the Numidian desert, on another the garden of Hesperides, thick set with groves of trees and rising mounds, while again it pictured the great rocks and caves of Thrace.

With these surroundings the combatants advanced, retreated, encircled their adversaries or kept wild beasts at bay as occasion offered or as their courage or fear suggested. Men combated not only with the more common brutes, but with such monsters as elephants, rhinoceroses, hippopotamuses and crocodiles. On other occasions flocks of game, such as deer and war ostriches, were abandoned to the multitude, and in some cases the arenas could be turned into lakes, filled with monsters of the deep, and upon the surface of which naval engagements took place.

The Word "Jinrikisha."

The word jinrikisha comes from three Japanese roots, jin-riki-sha, meaning respectively man, power, carriage, but it is not of Japanese origin. So recently as 1870 the inconvenience of the slow, lumbering two wheeled carts turned the thoughts of English residents to the ease with which the hardy natives could propel a lightly constructed vehicle, and one was invented, some say by a missionary, others by a newspaper proprietor's son. Ever since then the heavy carts have been entirely dispensed with.

A Positive Necessity.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg. I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself.—D. R. Byrnes, merchant, Doversville, Texas. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson, Gainesville, Fla., and J. C. Bishop, Alachua, Fla.

Two Meals a Day.

With many persons the custom of two principal meals, with a slight lunch between, finds considerable favor, and it has one or two reasons or solid advantages which are worth mentioning—it gives time for complete digestion before the stomach is again called on to take care of a supply of food, and it removes the chief meal from the time when the nerve force is wanted for the brain to an hour when it can assist the stomach.

Persons who are the victims of chronic complaints and whose digestion is slow and feeble are often greatly benefited by taking but two meals a day if they are careful to eat as much in the two as would ordinarily be comprised in three. The neuralgic in particular will do well to adopt this course, but the first meal should be somewhat late and the second reasonably early.

Juggling With Dynamite

Is no more dangerous than to neglect kidney disorders. Foley's Kidney Cure corrects irregularities and has cured many severe cases after other treatment has failed. It builds up the worn out tissues and restores health and vigor. "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis of Mt. Sterling, Iowa, "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure." Sold by J. W. McCollum & Co.

Agreed With Both.

Horace Greeley was the author of a style in editorial writing which had been often imitated, but probably never equaled. During his editorship two newspapers, neither of which was friendly to Greeley, became engaged in a violent altercation. The argument grew warmer until each paper openly called the other a liar. It was the opportunity Greeley had been waiting for. He announced in his paper that "he had the honor to agree with both of his distinguished contemporaries."

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere,—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Liberty Halls.

"This is Liberty hall, and you may smoke in the garden," is a maxim which has become typical of one sort of hospitality. Another version has just been perpetrated by a member of the early rising fraternity.

"I wish," said the host, "every one to do as he likes in my house."

It sounded very friendly, but on going to his bedroom the guest found a little card stating the times of meals, "Breakfast at 7.30," and in an N. B. was added, "It will be cleared away at 8.30."

The Golden Mean.

The motto of the Greeks was "Nothing too much."

An excess of courage is brutality.

An excess of economy is penuriousness.

An excess of taste is precocity.

An excess of gentleness is timidity.

An excess of confidence is egotism.

Who will show us where to draw the line?—Ernest N. Lyon in Everybody's Magazine.

Down on His Luck.

"Oh, John," she exclaimed as she observed him getting into his overcoat, "I hope you're not going to be out again tonight!"

"I hope not," he replied absentmindedly, "but it's quite likely. The cards have been running very badly for me lately."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Mean Way It Works.

"If you refuse to marry me," said the wealthy old man, "I shall pine away and die."

"Of course," responded the girl bitterly. "And if I would marry you you would hang to life like a bulldog. But that's the way it goes."—Detroit Tribune.

GRAVES MAY SUCCEED LEE.

Atlanta Editor Talked of as President for Jamestown Exposition.

Atlanta, May 18.—It is reported that Hon. John Temple Graves, editor of The Atlanta News, may be offered the position of president of the Jamestown exposition to succeed the late General Fitzhugh Lee.

The suggestion of Colonel Graves' name was made by W. E. Christian, assistant general passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line in the Virginia club at Portsmouth last Saturday night. Several directors and officers of the exposition company were present and it is said the suggestion was pronounced the best one that has yet been made.

Secretary G. T. Shepperd, of the exposition company was in Atlanta a day or two ago, and while here had a conference with Colonel Graves.

When asked about the matter Colonel Graves merely said such an honor would be a great one, and most highly appreciated by any man. Other than this he would not discuss it.

KILLED BY HER BROTHERS.

Troubles of a Texas Girl Result in Homicide.

Yoakum, Tex., May 18.—E. S. Mason, a prominent business man, was shot and killed by M. A. and P. A. Newman, brothers, who were concealed in the Lane hotel, and who used rifles.

Mason, it is said, feared trouble, but had adopted the policy of going about in his shirt sleeves, to show that he was unarmed.

Several days ago Miss Lillian Newman, about 28 years of age, died at Runge, and shortly thereafter Dr. J. M. Boyd, a highly respected physician, was bound over in $5,000 bond to answer a charge of malpractice in connection with the young woman's death.

The brothers of the dead girl, one living at Alice and the other at Fort Worth, visited Yoakum, then left town, but returned last night, and the shooting followed.

They surrendered and have been taken to Hallettsville.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T Gray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and lagrippe. At drug stores, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Kissed Wife; Killed Self.

Birmingham, Ala., May 18.—T. R. Tullos, formerly town marshal of Philadelphia, Miss., an one of the most prominently connected young men in Neshoba county, has committed suicide by firing a bullet through his brain. After being married for five months, domestic troubles are said to have arisen, and husband and wife agreed to separate. As the wife's effects were being loaded on a wagon preparatory to moving, Tullos went to her room and asked to kiss her goodby. After doing so, he retired at once to the rear of the house and fired the fatal shot.

Fall from Horse Ends Fatally.

Colquitt, Ga., May 18.—While Dr. P. E. Wilkin and Miss Jennie Eagerton were out horseback riding they met two four-horse wagons loaded with spirits of turpentine. In attempting to pass the first wagon the horse Miss Eagerton was riding became frightened and the mules became unmanageable, the result was that Miss Eagerton fell under the wagon and was crushed to death. The horse that Dr. Wilkin was riding was so mangled that it had to be killed. Dr. Wilkins was slightly hurt.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. DOCTORS IN ENGLAND

THE SCHEMES THEY USE TO GET IN THE EYE OF THE PUBLIC.

Shrewd Expedients by Which Lucrative Practices Are Acquired and by Which They Dodge the Rule of the Profession Against Advertising.

A young doctor beginning to practice is terribly handicapped by the rule under which any medical man who advertises is expelled from the profession, says the Leeds Mercury. He may be an extremely gifted physician or surgeon, and yet if he has not capital to buy a practice or interest with the governors of some hospitals he does not succeed in earning enough during the first few years to keep body and soul together.

Of course the result is that all sorts of dodges are adopted to evade and defeat the rule against advertising. It is well known in the profession that reputation and a large clientele depend more on the success with which this is accomplished than on real scientific ability. A celebrated London surgeon once admitted to the writer that he rose to the top of the tree by getting into his carriage several times a month and driving at a terrific pace through a half dozen streets. Sometimes he varied this by forgetting to take a necessary instrument when visiting a patient and then sending his driver back for it hot haste. Naturally people were much impressed by the procedure, believing that Surgeon D. must be an excellent surgeon since he was so often called to desperate cases.

Another London Esculapius owes an income of £10,000 a year to an ingenious stratagem, on which he risked the last couple of hundred pounds he had in the world. Having a very intelligent sister who was desirous of helping him, he explained to her the difficulty of making a practice by simply putting a brass plate on the door and hanging out a red lamp and induced her to be his accomplice in what was not far removed from a fraud on the public. Her part in the plot was to take a drug which paralyzed her limbs and gave her the appearance of being in the last stages of fatal illness. Then she was taken in an ambulance to apartments in a fashionable west end street, in order, so to speak, as a forlorn hope, to place herself under the care of Dr. X.

Dr. X., her brother, had meanwhile taken rooms in a neighboring street, put up his brass plate and hired a carriage with a spanking pair of horses. Three times every day he spent an hour with the invalid, while the carriage drove up and down the street. He cleverly managed to have it reported that his patient had been given up as a hopeless case by all the big medical men of London. At the end of two months he had cured her, and patients began to pour into his waiting room.

But the most successful method of all is to write a popular medical book or a semimedical magazine article or even a letter to the daily press. One medical man found that a religious poem which he sent without any ulterior motives to a widely circulated church magazine proved better than a Klondike gold mine. It is also known that the best paying patients are not the really sick, but those who imagine they are.

These foolish people devour dictionaries of medicine and medical journals, and no one knows this better than the pushing doctor. In fact, the medical journals are more extensively read by the laity than by the medical fraternity, and the doctor who can get a clever article published in one of them is sure to draw patients. Letters to the newspapers on occasions such as an epidemic, the vivisection agitation and the like are equally effective. And no doubt they would be more numerous but for the curious fact that the study of medicine seems to destroy the power of writing well.

But probably the best advertisement a doctor can have is to be employed in some cause celebre. This is partly the explanation of the extraordinary spectacle now and then witnessed in the courts of three or four medical men swearing that a certain wound could easily be self inflicted or that death was undoubtedly due to arsenic, while three or four more pledge themselves that the wound could not by any possibility be self inflicted and that arsenic had nothing whatever to do with the death. Great is the scheming to get engaged in one of those trials, for the publicity is worth a diamond mine.

Still another plan is to get up a hospital for the cure of some special disease. For this purpose several doctors often club together and with funds of their own, plus what they can get from the charitable public, open a hospital for skin diseases or deformities or ailments of any and every organ. Their names are not only advertised in the press, by circulars and at all kinds of dinners and annual meetings, but often they are put up on a large board outside the hospital, and they who would otherwise remain obscure become famous and get patients from the four corners of the kingdom.

One of the most famous ways of advertising is the issuing of bulletins about the health of some man of note. Even if he have only a sty in his eye the public is kept acquainted with its progress. In that case the doctor already has nearly all the reputation and patients he cares for, but lesser lights often have their names associated with the crack physician, and every bulletin is worth a hundred guineas to them.

A doctor would give a deal to have it announced in the papers that he has returned from a well earned holiday in Norway or the Mediterranean, and many a medical man owes his comfortable income to the friendly editor who says something about him in the column of personal news.

Most of these methods are open only to the city practitioner. The men who settle in small towns have to adopt different means. Generally they make use of all their arts to make friends with the ladies. They try to be very charming at garden parties and bazars, attend church regularly and sometimes have a note brought to them in the middle of service and hurry away. They endeavor to make themselves popular in the local clubs, or get remarkable by the possession of a spirited horse, or bleach their hair to look wise, or give a public lecture. Sometimes they win attention through the efforts of a tactful wife.

Another very good plan, open to the provincial as well as the city doctor, is to send testimonials to some wine or mineral water importer or to a manufacturer of sanitary clothing and occasionally to a quack medicine vender. In this way they get their names constantly in the local papers without infringing the rule against advertising.

The worst of it all, from the public point of view, is that it is not the best physician or surgeon who gets the greatest reputation, but the best man of business. And while patients crowd to the fashionable houses of mediocre doctors who have cleverly advertised themselves the most skillful physicians and surgeons of all grow rusty and all but starve in back streets.

Poles and Russians.

Hugo Ganz in his book on Russia writes as follows of the relations existing between the Russian officials and the Poles: "They remain separate, like oil and water. The Russian, even though he is the master, is of no consequence here. It is only necessary to observe for the space of an hour from some corner of the elegant dining room of the hotel the behavior of the Polish society and the complete isolation of the Russian officers or officials. It is only necessary to be able to distinguish the groups from one another—the Baltic nobility with their almost bourgeois families, merchants from all the principal countries, Russian functionaries and Polish society—and it will at once become clear who is at home here, firmly rooted to the soil, so that all others become strangers and intruders. It is the Poles, and the Poles alone."

Herbine

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise. L. S. Andrews, editor and manager Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: "I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit. Sold by W. M. Johnson, Gainesville, Fla., and J. C. Bishop, Alachua, Fla.

PRIVATE COINAGE.

At One Time It Was Quite Common In This Country.

The history of the issue of coins in this country by private individuals and companies would make a very interesting book. When gold was struck in North Carolina a man named Bechtler started a mint of his own there, which was abolished by law in 1849. Half eagles, quarter eagles and one dollar pieces issued by him were largely circulated in the south and west. Although of honest gold, they were about 2½ per cent under value on an average.

About the same time Templeton Reid coined gold in Georgia. He moved to California in 1849 and minted eagles and twenty-five dollar pieces on a considerable scale. Many companies and refineries in California and elsewhere made a business of striking gold coins during the same period. Naturally there was a great temptation to make these coins under weight and of inferior fineness. The Mormons in Utah issued eagles, half eagles and double eagles which bore on the obverse an eye, with the legend, "Holiness to the Lord."

Quantities of twenty five cent and fifty cent gold pieces were likewise manufactured at San Francisco, the former containing only about six cents' worth of the metal and the latter twelve cents' worth. Years ago a lot of these were taken over to Germany and circulated there, which elicited a formal diplomatic protest from that government. The private minting business was finally stopped.

A FISH THAT FIGHTS.

The Aggressive and Iridescent Plakat of Siam.

So aggressive is the plakat, a little fish from Siam, that the entertainment it affords has become a national pastime. The fishes are trained to go through regular battles and are reared artificially for the purpose, while the license to exhibit them to the general public is farmed out and brings a large amount of money into the royal coffers.

They are kept in aquariums built for the purpose and fed upon the larvae of mosquitoes and every possible care taken of them. When the fish is in a quiet state, with the fins at rest, the dull colors are not at all remarkable. But if two are brought together or within sight of each other, or even if one sees its own image in a looking glass, the little creature becomes suddenly excited.

The fins are raised, and the whole body shines with metallic luster and colors of dazzling beauty, while the protecting gill membrane, waving like a black frill round the throat, makes grotesque the general appearance. In this state of irritation it makes repeated darts at its real or reflected antagonist. If two are placed together in a tank they rush at each other with the utmost fury. The battle is kept on until one is killed or put to flight, but not until they are entirely separated does the victor shut his gaudy fins, that, like flags of war, are never lowered until peace has been declared.

BORORO INDIANS.

How the Boys of This Brazilian Tribe Get Their Names.

In an interesting article on the aborigines of Brazil in the current Southern Workman the method of naming boys is thus described:

The ceremony of initiation into the rights and privileges of citizenship in the Bororo tribe is interesting. The little bronze body of the baby boy is more or less daubed with gum or pitch and plated with white feathers; then early in the morning before the rising of the sun the family and friends and the priest or conjurer betake themselves to an eminence near the village. And as the sun, the supreme power, sweeps majestically upward from behind the eastern wilderness the conjurer bores the lower lip of the embryo warrior with an instrument made especially for the occasion and beautifully decorated with brilliant feathers and at the same time whispers "Piadudu" (humming bird) or the name of some other animal or object that the child is to bear. "Piadudu," softly repeat the family and friends in turn, and thus Piadudu, a favorite name, becomes the name of the little one. They are very jealous of their names and will not make them known to aliens. In order to become a citizen of the tribe a person of alien birth would have to reside with it for some time and be initiated much as the child is.

The Richest Man in the World.

The richest man in the world cannot have his kidneys replaced nor live without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up these organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebannon, Ky., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life." The annual closing exercises of the Gainesville Graded and High School will be held at the Auditorium this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. Owing to the fact that the principal has only been in charge a few weeks, the program has been changed from the usual entertainment. It will be of interest to all, and the patrons of the school should all try and be present.

Reading Roll of Honor. ..... Principal McIntosh

Only seven weeks ago Principal McIntosh was called to take control of the schools, and he has had much to contend with. But in spite of the fact that he had no time to lay down plans or make arrangements before the school opened, he has done excellent work and the roll of honor shows a large number of names and the attendance has kept up remarkably well.

The people should turn out to these exercises and manifest an interest in the public schools so that they will be a credit to our city.

COMING EVENT.

Kirby Smith Chapter Will Give Lawn Fete on June 2nd.

Kirby Smith Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, have decided to give a lawn fete on June 2nd, which will be given on the court house square. Ice cream, cake, etc., will be served, and the occasion will no doubt prove successful. Mrs. J. F. McKinstry, Jr., will have charge of the lemonade booth.

This entertainment is to be given in celebration of the birthday of Jefferson Davis, which is June 3, but desiring to avoid having the event occur on Saturday, the Chapter selected Saturday.

Further particulars will be given later.

Their First Lesson.

Some weeks ago The Sun called attention to the rabble that assailed the people who arrived over the Seaboard Air Line Railway as they left the trains to come up town, and cautioned them that there might come a day of reckoning. Marshal Pinkoson got after them and the result was that several were brought before Mayor Thomas' court and had to settle, yesterday.

Ed. Parker was the first to feel the law in regard to obstructing the way of passengers and he was assessed $2.50 and costs.

Wm. Murray being guilty of the same offense, laid his offering of $2.50 and costs down as a guarantee of good faith. Asa Bailey, another offender, contributed $5 for his freshness.

James Glass, charged with disorderly conduct—"grinning at an express messenger"—a grin that was quite adhesive, was fined $2.50 and costs. It may teach these chaps a lesson in how to conduct themselves at such places.

Death of an Infant.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Roux will sympathize with them in the death of their eighteen-months-old son, Thomas, who passed away at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon of cholera infantum after a brief illness.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, Rev. J. J. Nixon of Kavanaugh Methodist Church conducting the ceremony. Robert McClellan will have charge of the funeral arrangements. Friends of the family are invited.
